

Principle FIVE

P5

Yorkshire Co-operative Resource Centre

August 2020

No 173 & 174: Recommended donation £2 August 2020 Sheffield's Co-operative Newspaper

It's Out! The 2020 edition

Let us know if you would like a copy posting to your home. This edition has 24 pages. Like last time, it's printed on tabloid size newsprint.

The first Principle 5 pamphlet
'Sheffield & Socialism' is also available, copies of this can also be posted out.
For further info. Click HERE

Some very useful pamphlets and publications have been added to the Principle 5 resource centre including two editions of the Holberry Society bulletin. The Society was named after Samuel Holberry one of the leaders of a Chartist rebellion in Sheffield in 1840

These bulletins include Co-operative Ideas and Experiments in Sheffield 1790 – 1850. And Co-operative Schemes in the Era of mid-Victorian Prosperity 1850 – 1875 By John Baxter Which you can read HERE

Recent additions to the collection

Books

Co-operation: its problems and possibilities By A. H. Enfield

Pub. Longmans, Green & Co. Ltd. 1927

W. E. A. Outlines

Gigged: the Gig economy, the End of the Job and the Future of Work. By Sarah Kessler

Pamphlets

To Each according.....

A living income for all. Proposals from Sheffield for a new Social Security System.

Sheffield City Council.

The Pioneer Co-partnership Suburb. On the opening of the Brentham Club and Institute of the Ealing Tenants Ltd. Published by the Brentham Society 1990.

Previously Published by London Co-partnership Publishers Ltd 1912 and printed by Garden City Press Ltd, Letchworth.

Nuts and Bolts: how to start a food co-op. By Amy Coyle.

Published by the Conservative Co-operative Movement 2008

Building From the Bottom: The Sheffield Experience by David Blunkett and Geoff Green

Published by the Fabian Society 1983 (Fabian Tract 491).

Sheffield: Working It Out. An Outline Employment Plan for Sheffield. Consultative Document.

Department of Employment & Economic Development and the Central Policy Unit for Sheffield City Council 1987. Typeset and printed by City of Sheffield Printing Services, 1987.

Co-operation as a Remedy for Unemployment. By A. Stoddart. Read at the 41st Annual

Congress held at Newcastle-upon-Tyne 31st May, 1st & 2nd June 1909

Pub. The Co-operative Union.

The Co-operative Movement and the Consumer. By Edna M. Penny. Honorary National

Secretary, National Guild of Co-operators. (c. 1931). Pub. National Guild of Co-operators

Printed by CWS Printing Works.

Six Years of Labour Rule 1926 – 1932. Pub. Alderman E. G. Rowlinson on behalf of Sheffield City Council Labour Group. Forward by Rt. Hon. Arthur Greenwood MP.

The Holberry Society. Bulletin Number 4. Includes Co-operative Ideas and Experiments in Sheffield 1790 – 1850

Pub. The Holberry Society for the Study of Sheffield Labour History (May Day 1980).

The Holberry Society. Bulletin Number 5. Includes Part Two of Co-operatives in

Sheffield 1850 – 1895

Pub. The Holberry Society for the Study of Sheffield Labour History (Autumn 1980).

Recommended books for study of the Co-operative Movement

A Centenary story of the Co-operative Union 1869 – 1969

A Century of Co-operation

British Co-operation

Building Co-operation – A business history of the Co-operative Group 1863 – 2013

Co-op – the peoples business

The People's Cinema – Film and the Co-operative Movement

Weavers of Dreams – Founders of the modern cooperative movement

New Views of Society – Robert Owen for the 21st Century

There are, of course two aspects of the Co-operative Movement. The retail societies which dominated the movement for the second part of the 19th century and most of the 20th century (consumer co-operatives). And the emerging worker, creative, cultural, community, and multi-stakeholder co-operatives.

Principle 5 (education training and information)
Principle 6 (co-operation amongst co-operatives)
and
Principle 7 (concern for community) are all important for successfully growing a people and planet friendly alternative to capitalism. And that is very much needed!

Star and Shadow Podcast series

Star and Shadow Cinema is a volunteer-run DIY space for Newcastle, Tyne and Wear, and the north east UK. It is set up as an open-to-join co-operative housed in a building it owns, dedicated to culture coming from and/or programmed by the grass roots - particularly cinema and music.

This Land is Your Land. A talk show about Food Sovereignty

This Land is Your Land – a radio programme about food security – co-operatives

*

A Tribute to Mike Bower

Sheffield Co-operative Development Group (SCDG), Aizlewood Business Centre and numerous co-operatives in South Yorkshire would like to join many others in the Co-operative and Labour movements in paying tribute to Mike Bower who sadly passed away on 1 April this year.

Mike was not only the inspiration and driving force behind many remarkable developments in Sheffield such as the Heart of the City redevelopment, the Millennium Galleries, the Peace Gardens and the Winter Gardens to name but a few, but for co-operators the renovation of Aizlewood's Mill was the greatest contribution that he made to us.

You can read the tribute in full HERE

<https://party.coop/>

The Principle 5 resource centre has re-opened for one visitor at a time. It will be really good to see you coming back!

Principle 5 Yorkshire Co-operative Resource Centre
Aizlewood's Mill, Nursery Street, Sheffield, S3 8GG
Tel: 0114 282 3132

steve@sheffield.coop

<https://www.principle5.coop/>

