Job Advertisement: Co-operative Development Worker

Location: Sheffield

Salary: £35,000 - £40,000 depending on skills and experience

Contract Type: Full time, permanent

Closing Date: 9am on 30th June 2025

Are you passionate about co-operatives, community empowerment, and sustainable development?

We are looking for a dynamic and motivated Co-operative Development Worker to join our team. In this role, you will be working to support the growth and sustainability of co-operatives and community-owned businesses, contributing to a more equitable and inclusive economy.

Key Responsibilities:

- Support the establishment of new co-operatives: Provide advice and guidance to individuals or groups wishing to set up a co-operative, from initial concept through to the launch stage.
- Assist existing co-operatives: Offer ongoing support to help co-operatives improve governance, grow their membership, and develop business strategies for long-term success.
- Training and Capacity Building: Deliver workshops and training sessions on co-operative principles, governance, and best practices to new and existing co-ops.
- Advocacy and Awareness: Promote the co-operative model to local communities, businesses, and policymakers, raising awareness about the benefits of co-operative ownership.
- Partnership Development: Build and maintain relationships with other organisations, local authorities, and key stakeholders to expand the co-operative sector.

- Funding and Resources: Assist co-operatives in accessing funding, grants, and other resources, ensuring they have the tools they need to thrive.

About You:

You will bring a passion for community-led development, a solid understanding of the co-operative model, and the ability to work with diverse groups. You should be self-motivated, adaptable, and committed to promoting democratic, member-owned businesses that deliver social, economic, and environmental benefits.

Essential skills and experience

- Committed to co-operative approaches
- Knowledge of co-operatives and community businesses
- Business development knowledge/experience
- Commercially aware, with particular interest in lending
- Experience of delivering training and events
- Knowledge of co-operative and community owned enterprises in Sheffield and the surrounding areas
- A motivated self-starter, willing to work in a flexible manner and experience of managing own workload and priorities
- Good communication and IT skills
- Awareness of other providers that give support and advice
- 'Can-do' attitude
- Demonstrable partnership working and networking skills
- Genuine commitment to and understanding of equal opportunities

Desirable skills and experience

- Experience of supporting and advising co-operatives and community businesses
- Experience of community development
- Experience of undertaking research and writing reports
- Knowledge of the various legal structures available to co-operative and community-owned enterprises
- Understanding of appropriate legal frameworks
- Knowledge of equal opportunities practice
- Experience in securing and delivering consultancy contracts and/or grant funding
- Driving licence and access to a vehicle

What We Offer:

- A rewarding role helping build stronger, more resilient communities through the co-operative model.
- Flexible working arrangements and opportunities for professional development.

- A supportive and inclusive environment where your contributions will make a direct impact.
